

TITLE OF THE PRESENTATION

Name Surname (of Author1), Name Surname (of Author2)*, Name Surname (of Author3)**
Affiliation1, Affiliation2*, Affiliation3**
Email address1, Email address2, Email address3

Keywords: keyword1, keyword2, keyword3, keyword4, keyword5

The text of your abstract should be typed here. It should not exceed 500 words. Please format it in 12 point Times New Roman font, single-spaced, aligned left, and set margins to 1 inch (2.54cm) all around. No indentation of the first paragraph, the subsequent paragraphs begin with 1 cm indent each. Please use italics for highlighting examples (no bold, no underlining). Your abstract should be saved and submitted in .pdf format. If you are not a native speaker of English, please have your abstract checked by a native speaker.

The text of your abstract should be typed here. It should not exceed 500 words. Please format it in 12 point Times New Roman font, single-spaced, aligned left, and set margins to 1 inch (2.54cm) all around. No indentation of the first paragraph, the subsequent paragraphs begin with 1 cm indent each. Please use italics for highlighting examples (no bold, no underlining). Your abstract should be saved and submitted in .pdf format. If you are not a native speaker of English, please have your abstract checked by a native speaker.

The text of your abstract should be typed here. It should not exceed 500 words. Please format it in 12 point Times New Roman font, single-spaced, aligned left, and set margins to 1 inch (2.54cm) all around. No indentation of the first paragraph, the subsequent paragraphs begin with 1 cm indent each. Please use italics for highlighting examples (no bold, no underlining). Your abstract should be saved and submitted in .pdf format. If you are not a native speaker of English, please have your abstract checked by a native speaker.

The text of your abstract should be typed here. It should not exceed 500 words. Please format it in 12 point Times New Roman font, single-spaced, aligned left, and set margins to 1 inch (2.54cm) all around. No indentation of the first paragraph, the subsequent paragraphs begin with 1 cm indent each. Please use italics for highlighting examples (no bold, no underlining). Your abstract should be saved and submitted in .pdf format. If you are not a native speaker of English, please have your abstract checked by a native speaker.

The text of your abstract should be typed here. It should not exceed 500 words. Please format it in 12 point Times New Roman font, single-spaced, aligned left, and set margins to 1 inch (2.54cm) all around. No indentation of the first paragraph, the subsequent paragraphs begin with 1 cm indent each. Please use italics for highlighting examples (no bold, no underlining). Your abstract should be saved and submitted in .pdf format. If you are not a native speaker of English, please have your abstract checked by a native speaker.

References

- Gibbs, Raymond W. & Guy Van Orden. 2012. Pragmatic choice in conversation. Topics in Cognitive Science 4(1): 7–20.
- Kövecses, Zoltán. 2016. A view of “mixed metaphor” within a conceptual metaphor theory framework. In: Raymond W. Gibbs, Jr. (ed.), Mixing Metaphor. Amsterdam & Philadelphia, PA: John Benjamins, 1–16.
- Mifsud, Marie Lee. 2015. Rhetoric and the Gift: Ancient Rhetorical Theory and Contemporary Communication. Pittsburgh, PA: Duquesne University Press.